

One-on-One with Robyn

Is it time for a one-on-one session with an industry expert?

Global Networking Strategist, prolific author, ghost writer and award winning professional speaker Robyn Henderson - after numerous requests - is now available for one-on-one coaching/consulting sessions. Feedback from her clients highlighted that many people want personalised and customised sessions where Robyn could answer their specific questions in a private, confidential one-on-one session.

Fortunately, as Robyn travels with her speaking engagements, she can regularly offer one-on-one face-to-face sessions on the East Coast of Australia and her occasional trips to Western Australia and the Northern Territory. However, many regional clients prefer more regular Skype or phone sessions to discuss their immediate issues.

If you are:

- Thinking about writing a book or eBooks and not sure where to start
- Wanting to grow your business and not sure what your options might be
- Interested in launching a speaker's business
- Looking to brainstorm new ideas and strategies with an industry expert
- Wanting to discuss career options with a consultant who works across corporate, government and academic organisations as well as the NFP arena
- Needing ideas to develop additional income streams for your current or proposed business
- Under-utilising the profile and business building opportunities via LinkedIn®
- Considering reinventing your career or business and wanting an action plan to make that happen as painlessly as possible
- Confused why your networking is not producing a regular flow of referrals and contacts.

BOOK NOW - 0407 906 501 - robyn@networkingtowin.com.au

90 minute face-to-face, Skype or phone sessions are available by appointment only after hours or weekends, as well as during business hours.

If you are serious about growing your business and/or career in 2015, this is a brilliant opportunity for a one on one session with an industry expert.

Who is Robyn Henderson?

Her business card describes her as a Networking Strategist, Ghost Writer and Student, yet she spends more than 50% of her time these days writing for her clients from the Not For Profit sector, small business and the professional arena. Yet her passion remains in networking and showing people how easily it is to become a master networker.

Robyn has authored and contributed to more than 30 books on networking, business and career development and self esteem building over the last 20+ years. She has spoken in 12 countries and has never advertised – all her work comes from networking, referrals, her websites: www.networkingtowin.com.au, www.writeitforme.com.au and LinkedIn®.

Her career includes 22 years as a professional speaker, 10 years in sales and telemarketing management and 13 years in hospitality. Robyn also successfully ran women's networks in Sydney for 6 years in the early '90s and was listed in the Businesswomen's Hall of Fame (1997) and listed in the Top 100 Spirited Women of Australia (New Woman Magazine). Robyn was presented with the Speaker of the Year award from the National Speakers Association of Australia in 1997 for her contribution to the speaking industry.

In 2000 Robyn received the prestigious Nevin Award – given annually to a member of NSAA whose accomplishments reflects outstanding credit, respect, honour and admiration of the entire speaking profession. From 2007-2009 Robyn held the role of Executive Officer with the National Speakers Association of Australia where she grew membership to 600 members. And is the only Australian to have been awarded the the 3 awards - Speaker of the Year, Nevin Award and the highly prized Walter Dickman Award (2010), giving her recognition for her contribution to growing the speaking industry in Australia and New Zealand.

In 2003 Robyn was honoured to be appointed Adjunct Professor at the Southern Cross University in Lismore, NSW, Australia. In 2013-14, she completed the Diploma in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Knowledge externally with Charles Darwin University and is currently enrolled in a Graduate Diploma in Indigenous Policymaking.

Robyn has also assisted more than 250+ authors to self publish their writing in book and eBook format and when she has a spare moment, often takes on ghost writing project where she writes books from scratch for clients or takes their ideas, experiences and concepts and shapes them into books and eBooks. Obviously time management and personal productivity is second nature to Robyn as she moves seamlessly from strategist to ghost writer to student.

Originally from Sydney, Robyn has been based in the Northern Rivers area of NSW for the last 12 years and believes in making every day count.
